

What's missing in committee VOLUNTEERING? Maybe U R

What do committees do for me:

- ◆ Impact your profession
- ◆ Network with fellow CPAs
- ◆ Share professional expertise
- ◆ Gain Leadership experience

How Do I Get Started?

It's easy! Complete the volunteer form and submit it to the Society office.

Accounting and Auditing

Serves as a resource to members relative to all accounting and auditing issues, provides assistance to the Taxation Committee – State and Federal on legislative issues pertaining to accounting and auditing. May participate in the MA Society Accounting and Auditing Committee meetings via conference call or in person. Advises the Society CPE staff on CPE recommendations for the membership.

Accounting and Auditing for Non-Profits

Monitors changes in accounting, auditing, tax and regulatory developments as they relate to the not-for-profit world. The committee provides educational opportunities to members in public accounting and the not-for-profit community.

Business Valuation

Provides networking and professional development in the areas of estate/gift, mergers/acquisitions, exit strategy planning, financial reporting, compensation/IRC 409A, litigation, ESOP's, and bankruptcy for members and other professionals with interests in the business valuation field.

Committee participation keeps you informed and provides education on issues impacting your organization and your industry.

CPE Advisory

Provides the CPE staff with guidance in identifying continuing education seminars that assist members in maintaining their professional competency and identifies "hot topic" seminars to be added to the curriculum throughout the year. Reviews the proposed CPE curriculum prepared by the staff. Represents all segments of the membership.

Financial Careers

Promotes activities of interest to members involved in education. Maintains close working relationships with the various institutes of higher learning in the State. Manages the scholarship award program. Hosts the Annual CPA Career Night Reception.

Golf Tournament

Assists staff in the planning and marketing of the Society's Annual Golf Tournament. Provides resources for sponsorships, raffle items, and other fundraising ideas. Provides on-site assistance as tournament moderator.

Young Professionals

Offers opportunities for young people in the accounting profession to gain access to insightful leaders as well as opportunities to build relationships with other young accounting professionals in New Hampshire. The committee continually works to develop programs to help improve young members' professional skills and offers a variety of professional social networking events.

Tax Forms and Software

Provides an in-depth resource to the membership on matters of State taxation. Maintains a liaison with State taxing authorities and promotes joint undertakings with these groups providing assistance in resolving problems. In cooperation with the NH Bar Association's Tax Section, develops the Annual Tax Forum program. Responsible for updating the Annual Legislative Tax Guide for State Legislators.

Tax and State Legislation

Aids in developing a better public understanding of the CPAs' special competence in the field of Federal and State taxation. At the direction of the Board of Directors, may provide feedback and advice on State tax legislation issues or matters. Serves as a liaison to the NH Department of Revenue Administration by suggesting changes to regulations and statutes to improve NH tax administration, reviewing current tax issues, and making recommendations to improve the tax process.

State Legislation Sub-Committee

Advises the Society's Board of Directors, its members, and federal, state and local elected and appointed officials on governmental decisions which can influence the practice of public accounting. The sub-committee is charged with educating the Society's Board, its members, and federal, state and local elected and appointed officials, advocating for new legislation, appropriations matters and changes to existing laws and regulations for the benefit of those who practice public accounting and the people and organizations which benefit from those services. The sub-committee assists in building consensus on public policy issues affecting public accounting, communicates these positions to relevant parties, facilitates relationships between the Society, its membership and elected officials, and disseminates timely information to the Society's Board and members.

Task Force Groups

The Board of Directors may appoint task force groups for special projects from time to time.
